Where are we going?

From President Denise

Words from Abroad.

We are all doing well, enjoying seeing hearing and tasting Cambodian life. You'll hear more about that on our return.

The two kit-distribution days were truly an amazing experience.

I often described the Days for Girls project as 'my Rotary tear jerker moment' previously, well it really was on Saturday. To see the girls with their kits was just that. I found myself standing on a rickety plastic chair and taking photos of a mass of smiling faces with tears streaming down my face and a huge lump, in my throat.

See you soon.

Denise

Inside Information

Last Week

Last week we were under the control of PE Bec. It was Valentine's Day so that is what we celebrated.

Breakfast was served with hearts.

Bec gave us hearts too in the form of cardboard cut-outs and also as chocolate. The cut-outs we wrote down what we loved about Rotary and the chocolate ones we ate. Bec was suitably dressed for the occasion.

We also had to write a line for a poem about loving Rotary. The final verse read:

*It's sunrise at Sugar Mint
Café and I am feeling fine,
Only one male here so far
and his name is mine.*

*We enjoy the love and
have such fun,
Especially when we come together as one.*

Every meeting day comes with the sun,

Lots of laughter when we all come.

Early mornings then back to work,

It's great for all and fabulous for some,

*Especially when we twerk.
A smile for all when we all arrive.*

Unfortunately, there were only ten of us present (which is why there are only ten lines) so the poem didn't really get completed.

Whilst lacking in rhythm, the verse did say what we thought about our gathering.

No raffle, no fines, as no Sergeant but still the morning was fun.

Cambodia

As you can see from the front page, our Days for Girls Team are enjoying themselves even if they are in tears at times.

As well as the note from Denise, we received some photographs from Cathie. Here they are. Look forward to seeing them projected on their return.

Bit hard to see but is a gathering of the Girls. Look for these on our Facebook page for a better view.

You don't often see girls happily waving their panties around but here they are excited.

Other Information

Just the one event to acknowledge this week. We wish Anita's partner Rick a very happy birthday for tomorrow.

In two weeks' time, on the 8th of March, it will be International Women's Day.

The day began in the USA in New York back in 1909 when it was known as National Women's Day. The United Nations adopted it in 1975.

Each year there is a theme. This year the theme is Press for Progress.

The latest copy of the Macarthur Sunrise Contact Details handbook has now been completed and is being distributed to Members.

Please remember that this is a private document and is not for circulation either as a booklet or with the disclosure of any private information.

The next edition will be sent out for the Rotary New Year .
